Oscar Daniel Limprich
May 10, 1990 – August 20, 2019

Son to Sylvia T. and Oscar A. Limprich

Brother to Rafael J. Felipe and James C. Limprich

Father to Daniel, Donavin and Lavinia Limprich

Grandson to Oscar C. & Haydee Limprich, Isabel & the late Justo Toledo

Oscar Daniel was a big hearted clown that always made the room shine when he walked in, loud and full of spirit he always made everyone laugh. He would always be the first one with a helping hand and he'd give you the shirt off his back and that is why he is loved by so many. In the midst of our grief, we find solace in the belief that he is now reunited with all of his grandparents. May this reunion bring him the peace and happiness. He will be greatly missed and will always be in our hearts. We will always love you, Oscar we want you home with us.

Hi honey, I miss you so much. We still don't have closure regarding your case. The Detective says she's on it and she's got things that she's working on but we keep our fingers crossed hoping and praying every day, every month that goes by we contact her but nothing yet. I pray to God something happens soon so we can close this out for good. I know you are with grandma and grandpa and JJ and I know that you are happy and you're not in pain anymore but I love you and I miss you so much, honey. I wish I could see you once again. I will NEVER FORGET YOU MY BABY!!! ❤️👤❤️

Hi baby, I wish I could see you again, if only in my dreams. I can't accept your gone and I'm never gonna see you here on earth. Your daughter just turned seven she is just so beautiful. I know you were with her and I know she misses you just like Daniel and Donavin do. Daniel is getting so big, and he's very smart Donavin is also very smart he want bicycle after riding an essay in school. Daniel is taking high school classes in eighth grade. He wants to be an engineer. Well sweetie I'll talk to you soon. I hope to see you in my dreams. I love you so so much sweetheart. ❤️👤😭

When we first met it was instantly known from both of us that we needed to be together. That being said, as soon as we got together we were inseparable. We were young and we both wanted to have fun and that we did ! I don't have a memory without you in it. You taught me how to drive. We pretty much learned everything we did along the way. We gifted each other 3 beautiful souls. You were always trying to find a way to make sure We had everything. Not understanding all we needed was each other. The last of our conversations were peaceful. For the past month we actually got along. We had the same views for our children and we wanted to make sure we were both happy and agreed that was the goal no matter what it was! Hours before your death we told each other we would always be family and here for each other and that our love ran so deep no matter what was going on it wasn't going to fade. For once we had respect for each other . That very moment I knew that something changed in him. I'm proud of him and of all that he's done within himself and I hope he was as well .From here on out it's going to be a struggle for myself and I'm sure our childrenBut I'll remain strong for them and will never let them forget#Forever

My darling son I can't understand why you had to leave us. I miss you so much and the pain is unbearable. I have this huge hole in my heart. I can't sleep, I can't eat, I can't think straight, this has been the worst, worse time in my life. I pray you are at peace and you're with grandpa and uncle JJ and you are watching over us. You will forever be my Guardian Angel. I love you always and forever, until I can be with you again. See you soon baby ????????

The day you was born made me the happiest big brother ever, not once but twice when James came along. We may have been 11 years apart but we had our bond and always had each others back. Since you was a baby you were always LOUD AF!! LOL but I always loved that about you bro. You had a way of making it known you was in the room or basically the area. I always told mom we could never lose you as a kid, just listen and you'd find him mom always laughed at that joke. Oscar you left us to early, I wasn't ready and one thing we did wrong was let time get the best of us. My heart aches bro, it's like it's been ripped into pieces, I wish I could call you bro and you'd answer. RIP little bro, big bro loves you so much
