Karina Murphy posted:

There are no words to describe the pain and grief in my heart. Wisi was my second mother who got only raised, nurtured, and loved her family, nieces and nephews, but was a self less , compassionate loving and dedicated beautiful soul. There was always a kind word and a smile. I wish I could hear the sound of her laughter again, receive her blessings every morning on my way to work and watch her enjoy our evenings of karaoke. I always made sure to sing her favorite song for her. A part of me is torn but at peace to know that she has reunited with our family and with God in heaven. She is my Angel. She took care of us as children on his earth and now she will continue to do so from heaven.
