Michael Todd Mendheim

FEB 28, 1967 - APR 29, 2020

Mike was a loving husband, adoring father, devoted son and wonderful friend and brother. He loved to love people and his love was contagious. We will all miss his beautiful smile, energetic personality and goofy sense of humor.

He was so many things to so many people, always there with a hug, a hand or a word that we needed to hear.

We will all miss him more than could be expressed, our loss is heavens gain.

He was survived by his wife Jen and their four daughters Emily, Carly, Katie, and Dori. Also, his loving Mother and Father, Judy and Gene and his brother and sister Steven and Ruth as well as a vast company of other family and friends.

He will be dearly missed.

My deepest condolences. I knew Michael he eas in my homeroom from 8th grade till 12th. He was always nice,laid back dude. We always had fun in our History class, AP Government, Mrs. Court English Lit. Class. He was one of the First guys I knew that always very down to common sense. We always had fun with the debate in History class Mrs. Miller. He will be truly missed. Rest easy friend.
