Patricia Lofman

JUL 25, 1954 - NOV 29, 2020

Patricia Lofman, lovingly known as Tricia, passed away on November 29th of 2020. A long time resident of Miami, Florida, Tricia was born 66 years ago at Scott Air Force Base, in Belleville, Illinois to Elmer and Juanita Seitzler. She grew up in Big Spring, Texas where she met her husband, Scott, who was going through pilot training at Webb Air Force Base. After dating for several years, they were married in 1976 and recently celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary. Tricia started off her professional career as a secretary for the United States Air Force. She then pursued a career in Mary Kay Cosmetics, ultimately becoming a car-winning director. Her faith in Christ was her cornerstone. A devoted Christian, she became a Precepts International Bible teacher and dedicated almost forty years of her life to teaching the word of God. She is survived by her beloved husband, Scott; loving mother Juanita and dear brother John, who both reside in Dallas, Texas.

Tricia was a beautiful person inside and out. She was a great wife to her husband Scott..She handled her illness with great dignity and class.

My sister had more courage and love of Jesus Christ than most anyone. I saw her bravely fight cancer for many years never complaining but always praising God and totally dedicated to teaching others about Him. She was an inspiration to my family. Miss you Tricia!

I'm so sad to learn about Tricia's passing. I knew her through Mary Kay when we briefly lived near Miami. We kept in touch & got together a few times after I left Florida. She introduced me to a wonderful group of Christian women in Coral Gables, that grew & matured my Faith. We lost touch over the past decade or so, but I still treasure her influence & friendship. Praying peace & comfort for all her family!! Verna Ehlert
