Amparo Gomez

JAN 17, 1928 - FEB 5, 2021

Amparo Valentin Gomez, 93, of Miami, died Friday February 5th, 2021 in her home peacefully. She is survived by her son Jose Gomez and his wife Gabriela of Pembroke Pines, FL; sister Emma Valentin of Miami, FL; grandchildren Alejandro, Daniel, and Cristian Gomez; niece Ileana Fernandez of Miami, FL.

Born January 17th, 1928 in Havana, Cuba, she was the daughter of the late Jose Valentin and the late Carmen Nieto. Amparo, her late husband Conrado, and son traversed the treacherous waters of the Atlantic making their way to the United States from Cuba for a better life in 1965. They made Miami their home for all of their years where they raised their son and saw their family flourish.

Amparo worked most of her life as a restaurant waitress in different restaurants and loved to travel. She loved traveling so much, that after retiring, she worked part time in a travel agency. After leaving the travel agency, she enjoyed babysitting the youngest children of the family.

Amparo was always on the go, always ready for her next adventure. One of her passions was cruising. She visited multiple Caribbean Islands, Europe, and Alaska. She always dressed to the nines, fashionista for sure. She lived a very healthy life, being a vegetarian for a part of it. But her greatest passion of all was her love for her family and friends. Her laugh was contagious and her smile lit up a room. Everybody loved beautiful Amparo. She will forever be loved and missed. May she rest in eternal peace.

Ana M Andreini lit a candle in honor of Amparo.

We miss those we love and we grieve, but remember grief never ends but it changes. It is a passage not a place to stay. Grief is not a weakness nor a lack of faith. It is the price we pay for having loved. Our hearts and prayers are with you in your time of sorrow.
