Susan Pons shared a photo to the Tribute Wall album.

Dear Mrs Leng, although I had always called you Mrs Leng (following my father's habit, I guess) you always referred to me as your god-daughter in front of others. Thank you for the honor. I'll always remember the summer of 1970 at your home in NYC. You were like a mother to me, then and years afterwards whenever we had a chance to meet. And you were constantly kind and generous towards our family through the years, very protective too. Thank you again. Rest in peace, and may God bless your children and grandchildren.
