Ana Rodriguez

AUG 28, 1938 - JUL 14, 2021

A NA RODRIGUEZ (1938-2021) R.I.P. Ana Rodriguez was born in Havana, Cuba, the artist was inspired by her memories as a child while living in Cuba before moving to the United States in 1956. Ana Rodriguez remembered her love for the art's since early childhood and started painting at a young age and still had fresh memories of the Cuban people enjoying the ocean views at the famous "Malecon" and of the Cuban men working the streets throughout the city of Havana like "El Manicero" selling peanuts, "El Billetero" selling lotto tickets, "El Tamalero" selling hot tamales and "El Cubanito" selling snow cones to all the children, she also remembered all the joy on the people's faces while dancing "La Conga" through out the streets of "El Prado" during the music festivals called "La Comparsas." Ana Rodriguez paintings take us back through time to Havana in the 1950's.
