Paul and I feel such an extremely sad emptiness without kind, gentle, and positive Tanagra no longer in our lives. Martin, Tony, Debbie and Michael, we know the millions of special memories of her that you hold dear in your hearts are even more special now. There was never one person who didn't fall in love w her when they met her. She was one in a million; they don't make them like her anymore.

My heartfelt condolences to Martin, Debbie and Michael. Tanagra was a rare gem, a sweet soul. The world will be a lonely place without her. Her spirit lives on in our hearts and soul. Tanagra and I were kindred spirits with similar birthdays. It breaks my heart that we lost her at such an early age. Once again my love goes out to you and I embrace you during this difficult time. All my love, Gig Krop

We shared many good times with Martin and Tanagra whenever they came to St. John. Tanagra was such a warm and caring person. She was one of those people you like instantly and over the years we all became close friends. Martin – we feel your grief and hope to be able to come see you soon. Love, Cathy & Marty Beechler

Martin, Debbie and Michael, we are so sad for you and everyone who knew and loved Tanagra to hear that she has passed. This is the perfect photo of Tanagra, beautiful, full of life and always smiling. I have missed seeing her the past few years on St. Thomas and St. John. It was a privilege and joy to know her. Rest in peace. Sharon Hupprich
