Padre Nuestro, que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu nombre;
venga a nosotros tu reino;
hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo.

Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día;
perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden;
no nos dejes caer en la tentación,
y líbranos del mal.
Amén.

What can i say about this great men? we meet him back in 2007... it was the first time i saw my mom happy, laughing a day long, and completely alive... we get along from the moment we say hi... and when my birth dad passed, he become my dad for real... he teach me soooo many things, how to dance cuban style, how to cook cuban food, and how to have fun with small things... i cannot make up my mind on which memory to share because its too many years of great great memories... this is to the memories of the best step daddy in the world... today a piece of me left with you... rest in piece...

My father was always my first love and my rock. I can always count on him to listen to my fears and happiness. He taught me many things. Mostly he taught me to be strong and independent. My father loved his family and was married to my mother Zenaida for over 50 years. They showed me what a strong marriage truly is. He loved his grandson Dale more than anything. He was able to spend time with him and I know Dale has great memories he will treasure always. I will hold on to my special memories with him--- Beach days, parties, laughter and the many hugs and kisses he gave me. I will see you again.
