Clemente Adolfo Almeida

NOV 23, 1934 - FEB 4, 2022

Clemente Adolfo Almeida was born in Sagua La Grande, Cuba on November 23, 1934 to parents Maria O’Farrill and Adolfo Almeida. He was one of six children, including siblings Concepcion, Miguel, Estanislao, Vicente, and Elvira “Loli”.

Clemente emigrated to the United States in 1968 after surviving two years as a political prisoner in a labor camp under the Communist regime of Fidel Castro. He worked in Miami’s service industry prior to moving to Oregon when his sister Loli, brother-in-law Marino, and their seven children (Marino, Abelardo, Diego, Odalis, Maria, Adolfo, and Marlene) arrived from Cuba to the United States. During his time in Oregon, he enjoyed spending time with his family, picnicking at Blue Lake, and gathering at the Cuban-American Social Club. He even served as the first-ever Hispanic Union Leader at a national furniture company, one of his proudest accomplishments.

Clemente married Ziomara Stincer and helped raise her two sons, Carlos and Jorge, whom he loved very much. The family relocated to Miami, where Clemente worked for Helene Weissner Designs, alongside his brother Miguel. Although Clemente and Ziomara eventually divorced, they maintained a beautiful friendship.

In 1986, thanks in part to his best friend Emilio, Clemente met Juana at a birthday party. Within two years they were married with twin girls, Celia and Sandra. Four years later, another girl, Maria, came along to round out the Almeida family.

Clemente is survived by his loving wife of nearly 35 years and their three daughters. His family will remember him as a loving father and husband who enjoyed making people laugh with his endless repertoire of jokes and anecdotes. He loved traveling, the outdoors, films, and his roosters; but most of all, his family. He leaves a lasting legacy of love, patience, and perseverance.

The Almeida Family would like to express their sincere gratitude for the outpouring of love and support they've received during this difficult time. Condolences may be sent to the family:

Tio, my memories of you will always be full of joy and laughter. You have always believed in each one of us as our uncle. I honor you with all my heart for your incredible faithful love for us. You were always a compassionate, affectionate, and gentle-hearted man. You and your beloved sister Loli (our mom) shared that same spirit of tenderness for each other, and with each of us. Thank you for all that you did for us (your Pérez nieces and nephews and our mom and dad) to enrich our lives, and help us to acculturate to our community in Portland, when we emigrated to the United States. Our lives were forever changed, and we are grateful you were a big part of walking through that journey with us, and you continued to be a big part of our lives as we grew into adulthood. We are truly blessed and proud to call you our uncle. Until we meet again in glory Tio, hasta luego. Te quiero con todo mi corazón, Marléne.
