If only I could find the right words to say I would. I remember, like it was yesterday, the time my kids spent vacationing with yours in Arizona. My family & I send our deepest condolences. Brother, in times like these all I know to do is to pray. I pray that God will heal your broken heart and give you peace in the midst of your storm. The road ahead want be easy, but I want you to always know I'm here for you when ever need me. Over the years I have become even more connected to your family. You have been my friend, no My Brother, for the past 30 years. I have witnessed your love for your kids, family, and those around you. I love you and will continue to ask God to comfort you and the family.
