Papa, I'm going to miss you so much. Thank you for teaching me to be a good person, to be patient and the daily reminder that everything passes. I'm going to miss your smile amongst so many other things. I love you for ever ❤️

Abuelo, thank you for protecting me, caring for me and loving me unconditionally. I will never forget all the special moments I had with you during my childhood. Picking me up from school, taking me to McDonald's, and running with me at the park. I will miss your smile, your laugh, taking you to play lotto, and hugging you tight. Anyone who met you knows how kind and gentle you are - an angel on Earth. I promise to be patient and brave like you were. I promise to always remember that, "todo pasa". You were strong for so long and I'm grateful for every memory I shared with you. I love you so much Abuelo and I hope you're resting, my angel.

It is a such a sad time knowing you have passed. You were such a sweet soul, for the short but memorable time I got to spend with you. You have an amazing and strong family who loves and knows you will be watching from above. You will always be in everyone's hearts and have your memorable impact on everyone who has had the pleasure of meeting you or even sitting in silence with you. My love is forever with you and the beautiful family you have created.
