Joseph Moore Nowland

MAY 3, 1944 - JUL 14, 2024

Joseph Moore Nowland Jr., a beloved and talented Classic Rock and Blues Bass Guitarist and Singer, passed away on July 14, 2024, in Cutler Bay, Florida. Born on May 3, 1944, in Washington, D.C., Joseph was known for his loving, kind, and creative spirit.

Beyond his musical talents, Joseph was a devoted husband. He shared 52 years of marriage with his beloved wife, Anne Nowland. Their enduring love and companionship were an inspiration to all who knew them.

Joseph's family mourns his loss but cherishes the memories they shared. His surviving sisters include Suzie Hibbard and Mary Colleen Nowland. Additionally, he is survived by his half-sister, Mary Doris Howard, and step-sisters Patricia Hines and Shirley Strong.

Joseph Moore Nowland Jr. will be remembered not only for his musical legacy but also for the warmth and kindness he brought to those around him. His spirit lives on through his music and the love he shared with family and friends.

In Honor of Joe he would want donations to St. Judes.

Joe was the bass player in the Band Delphonics that I co founded with Jon Friedline in 1962. He was a great person, loving, helpful and kind. I played with him from 62 to 65. I kept in touch till the bitter end. I miss him very much!!

Joe was the first bass player I worked with ('65 - '68). He was a great mentor and great guy. He'll be missed, RIP Joe.
