My favorite person. The family member I connected with most. He was kind, caring, and considerate. Always attentive to those he cared for. He was also insanely smart. He could have the most interesting conversations on history, religion, etymology, psychology... He wrote and published multiple books on our family history and appeared in numerous interviews. His wife, Norma, and I spent the whole summer caring for him in the summer, his lady few months. She held his hand as he passed. He will be missed. We loved him.

El mejor de los amigos, el más inteligente, caballeroso, enciclopédico y cuanta cosa elevada y bella pueda atribuirle. Te voy a extrañar muchísimo. Un abrazo como siempre nos despedíamos y hasta que nos volvamos a encontrar.
