Gerald Gutierrez

AUG 4, 1978 - SEP 9, 2024

Gerald Gutierrez born in Cuba on August 4th, 1978, and now resident of Miami, Florida, has passed away on September 9th, 2024. He leaves behind his Parents "Ubaldo Gutierrez & Martha Dominguez" & loving Sister Zayda Milner. His loving family has dedicated this prayer in his name. Cuando tenga que dejarte por un corto tiempo, por favor no te entristezcas ni derrames lágrimas ni te abrases a tu pena a través de los años; por el contrario empieza de nuevo con valentía y con una sonrisa por mi memoria y en mi nombre vive tu vida y haz todas las cosas igual que antes. No alimentes tu soledad con días vacíos sino llena cada hora de manera útil. Extiende tu mano para confortar y dar ánimo y en cambio yo te confortaré y te tendré cerca de mi; ¡Y nunca, nunca tengas miedo de morir porque yo estaré esperándote en el cielo! Services are posted below for anyone who like to join the family on that day.

As I look back, I remember crossing paths with Gerald Gutierrez a few times, some 20 years ago. He had this quiet presence, one that filled the room without trying, and a smile that made you feel like you belonged there. I'd see him at places like Churchill's and Tobacco Road—those spots where the music and the people intertwined, and his guitar playing seemed to capture the essence of those nights. He was the kind of musician who didn't just play the guitar; he felt it, and somehow, so did you. Seeing the photos that Lisa Martin shared brought it all back—his music, the memories, and that smile. It's the kind of thing you carry with you, long after the music fades. My condolences to his friends and family.

I am grateful for the special times in my life that I shared with Gerald. We went to high school together. Gerald was an A+ student. Always so smart, so clever. I remember we used to do riddles and he was so good at it. And we were friends long after high school, and bonded with conversation, with music, at concerts, and sharing with friends. He was an amazing musician and guitarist in particular, a great friend. I trust he is in the glory of God and reunited with loved ones that passed on before him. Until we meet again, G! Sending mucho love to Gerald's father, mother, and sister. You are in my heart and prayers.
