Joysie Ramsahai:

A Tribute to a Life of Faith and Love

Joysie Ramsahai, affectionately known as Joyce, passed away on January 30, 2025, at the age of 75, leaving behind a profound legacy of love, compassion, and devotion. Born in Waterloo, Trinidad, Joysie touched the hearts of all who knew her, becoming a beloved figure in her family and community. Her life was rooted in the belief that through God, all things are possible, a faith that she lived out through her involvement in the Church, singing in the choir, teaching Sunday school, and even serving as an elder.

Joysie's life was a beautiful tapestry woven with threads of love and generosity. She found immense joy in her kitchen, where she lovingly prepared traditional meals that brought her family together. Her culinary skills were just one of the many ways she expressed her affection.

Family was the cornerstone of Joysie's life. She delighted in spending time with her grandchildren, playing cricket, and watching wrestling. Her unwavering faith and compassion for others were evident in every interaction, leaving an indelible mark on everyone she met.

Joysie's spirit was a beacon of inspiration, characterized by her caring nature, generosity, and infectious joy. She demonstrated what could be achieved with determination and persistence, living her life to the fullest despite any challenges she faced. Her greatest joys were the love of her husband, Kenneth, and the cherished roles of mother and grandmother. She was a devoted mother to four children: Nicky (deceased), Vicky, Laura, and Stacy.

The loss of Joysie is profoundly felt by her family and all who were fortunate enough to know her. Her memory will continue to inspire strength, resilience, and generosity in those whose lives she touched, ensuring that her legacy of love endures.

My Aunt Joyce was the most loving caring person. She was my disciplinarian, always giving me advice and encouraging me to do good things in life and to get a good education. I will remember all the fun moments we had at Xmas parties and how she would always pack me a bag of food when she made her delicious Indian delicacies. Her fudge was the best. RIP my dear Aunt I Love ❤️ you and miss you dearly.
