Lynn Gorfine lit a candle in honor of Pamela.

Pam was one of my best friends. I am really going to miss her. Even though I moved out of Miami 13 years ago we stayed in touch. My husband always knew I'd be tied up for at least an hour when I was talking to Pam. With a lot to catch up on we always talked on and on. What I admire most about Pam was her ability to not let things get her down. Going thru chemo, having a broken hip and dealing with physical therapy, or any other health issues, she always had a positive outlook. She never let any of her ailments get her down. I have many memories of our adventures when we were roommates and beyond. I am proud to call her one of my best friends and to have shared life experiences with her. I am sorry that I cannot be there for her memorial service.
