Hector R. Selin

JUL 24, 1951 - JAN 31, 2026

Hector Ruben Selin

Son, Brother, Husband, Father, Grandfather & Friend...

If you met him, you were lucky. I know for a fact he put a smile on your face...

One hell of a mechanic and an even better piano player. He would share a coffee with you, talk to you about life, listen to you but don't be mistaken, if you sat across from him on a chess board, you were done. And if you messed with his family, you may as well sign your own death certificate.

I could tell you firsthand as his first-born son, if my dad loved you, you knew he'd always have your back. He loved music and he enjoyed having a good time like the best of them but if there's one thing he loved above all else was his family.

I speak for all of my family and all of his friends; we will never stop missing you pops... You will live through us forever!

I know you're rocking that piano up in heaven & I know you'll always be watching over us pops...

I love you; we all love you. Thank you for being a part of our lives and blessing us with your presence as long as you did.

Your first-born son,
Hector Abel Selin

P.S. We will "Hold On"

My deepest condolences to you and your beautiful family and may God bless you and your mother and siblings and give you guys strength. I grew up with Hector — hell of a guy. I remember always shaking his hand and him having one hell of a grip. We used to play outside back in the day when Hec was running the show at Villa 56 with Willy, Lazar, Pablo, etc. Good times. Hec was always a great storyteller. He'd talk about NYC and the Camaro he had, haha. I remember him telling me about a burnout he did in front of the townhouse and leaving a hole on the floor. I love that man. It's kind of emotional writing this. I wish I could have seen him one more time. When my mom (Dalia from 1771) sold her townhouse, I went back a few times to look around the neighborhood but didn't get to catch him. You're 100% right — if you met him, he'd put a smile on your face. Ponytail, firm grip, and that strong old-school NY attitude. RIP, my brotha. Love you, Hec. Emiliano
