Carlos Marino

OCT 25, 1950 - MAR 7, 2026

Carlos Marino, born October 25, 1950, in Oriente, Cuba, passed away peacefully on March 7, 2026. He grew up in Astoria, New York, after his parents, Carlos Marino and Carmen Marino, left their country, Cuba, for a better life in the United States. Both his father and mother have since passed away. Carlos later moved with his family to Miami, where he built a successful business. He was a great husband, a wonderful father, and a devoted grandfather. He was a happy soul who loved gardening and was deeply loved by many. He is survived by his wife, Ana Barbara; his son, Carl Marino; his daughter, Barbarann Marino; his granddaughter, Yazlyng Marino; and his brother, Jose Marino. Services: Visitation will be held on Thursday, March 12, from 5:00 PM to 11:00 PM at San Jose Funeral Home, 250 E 4th Ave, Hialeah, FL 33010. Family and friends will gather at the funeral home at 9:00 AM on Friday to close the casket and say their final goodbyes before proceeding to the cemetery. Burial will take place on Friday at 12:00 PM at Memorial Plan at Memorial Park, 6200 SW 77th Ave, Miami, FL 33143. Carlos will be dearly missed and forever remembered by all who knew and loved him.

Grandpa Honey made me smile whenever he talked about his love for Grandma Barbara. He always said that she's the only person he would move thousands of miles for.

Yazmarie, you are also our granddaughter And always will be and and we love you very much.
Love, Grandma and grandpa honey.

A lesson I learned from Grandpa Honey is that life is too short to hold grudges. We should make peace while we can, because tomorrow is never promised.
