

Brandon W Gamble

July 2, 1973 - September 12, 2020

Brandon W. Gamble, 47, of homestead, Florida passed away on September 12, 2020 at his home. Brandon was a loving son to Cheryl pauline and will be dearly missed by his friends and family.

When I am gone, release me, let me go I have so many things to see and do you mustn't tie yourself to me with tears be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I travel on alone. So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for awhile that we must part so bless the memories with your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile, and welcome you home.

“ I knew Brandon as a kind, loving, and playful person. I loved his dedication to the Everglades and native plants, his kindness towards animals, and his creative energy. I learned he passed the day after Toots Hibbert. We used to listen to a lot of Bob Marley and sometimes Toots and the Maytals while watching the house geckos run from behind one picture frame to another. Once Brandon told me if he moved away from South Florida,
"I'd miss a lot of the little things; Calypsos, that little ice cream shop just south of it, beaches and palm trees, of course the Glades, house, hostel, etc..."
I'd like to think he's in some other dimension, enjoying a Calypso's serrano cream grilled fish, listening to reggae, and feeling the breeze off the Keys. RIP Brandon
